

A stepping stone into Coaching & Leadership

As lots of paddlers prepare to become Instructors, Leaders and Coaches, the range of direct entry awards now available give you the choice of how you up skill your personal paddling ahead of the course to ensure you can focus on the course content.

The NEW Personal Performance Awards are a great stepping stone for those looking to undertake Coaching and Leadership qualifications and provide appropriate milestones and acknowledgement of personal skills. These are not compulsory but act as a guide of your development.
